COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
VICTORIA, V. I., October 21st, 1859.

The following communication from the Assistant Gold Commissioner and Justice of the Peace for the Lytton District, containing matter which may prove interesting to the community, is herewith published for general information.

By command.

WILLIAM A. G. YOUNG,
Acting Colonial Secretary.

Lytton, October 4th, 1859.

SIR:—I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency, the Governor, that having received several communications from miners stationed on the Thompson and Fraser Rivers, that the Indians were about to assemble to attack the white men, and that a man named Antoine Gregoire, a half-breed at the Pavilion, on the Fraser, was the principal instigator of it, I considered it my duty, in the capacity of Magistrate of the District, to make a personal investigation of the reports, and to endeavor to prevent, if possible, any collision between the Indians and white men, and I accordingly assembled as many of the chiefs at Lytton as I could gather, and explained to them that it was the wish of all the whites to be friends with the Indians, and how much better it was that it should be so. I then started with one of my constables, to visit the different chiefs around, and Antoine Gregoire in particular, at the Pavilion, returning by Kamloops, and visiting the tribes on the Thompson River. With respect to the report of Antoine Gregoire being the principal instigator, I am happy to say it was quite unfounded, and that, from what I could learn of his character, and feelings towards the whites, it was more to his advantage, and wish, to be on good terms with them, than otherwise, and that he was more likely to prevent than instigate any hostilities, which from the influence he has amongst the Indians, he could well do, and he assured me, he would do so, to the best of his ability, should he hear of any probability of an outbreak. On my tour across from the Pavilion, to Kamloops, and down the Thompson River, I found the Indians everywhere very friendly disposed, and do not think there is any probability of an outbreak, although I warned the different miners to be on their guard in case of any sudden rising, and at the same time told the chiefs to tell their different tribes not to molest the miners.

Together with this report, I beg to enclose a Quarterly Report of transactions of my District, and a rough sketch of the mines and trails on the rivers.

Trusting my visit round the District, and endeavors to maintain a peaceable understanding with the Indians, may meet the approbation of His Excellency,

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

(signed) HENRY M. BALL, J. P.,
Assistant Gold Commissioner.

To the COLONIAL SECRETARY,
British Columbia.

THE BARS.

Along the Fraser, enumerated in order of position from Lytton, as far as Anderson River junction, (supposed boundary of this district,) are:—

On West Bank.

On East Bank.

1. Rip Van Winkle.

2. Dallas.

3. Rancherie.

4. New Brunswick.

5. Millers.

6. Kanaka.

7. Halfway House.

8. Murderers.

9. Fargo.

10. Yankee.

11. Anderson.

12. Long Island.

13. Boston.

Anderson's River here cuts in on the East Bank, (here is a ferry over the Anderson's River.)

14. China Bar.

TRAILS.

Lytton to Yale—distance 80 miles, very rough, stony, and hilly; several dangerous creeks crossing it; torrents in early part of the summer, passable by foot passengers on single logs, by animals by swimming, aided by hauling; there is a ferry also across the Frazer, to be passed about 16 miles from Yale, on the side near the Forks; the worst portion of the trail is over the Jackass mountain, which might be avoided at an expense of about £60—a sum sufficient to make a trail round the base of the mountain, instead of, as at present, traversing the summit, and a few rough log bridges thrown across the creeks would make the trail passable for pack animals, eight months during the year, from Anderson river, in fact at which point the Hope and Yale trails unite, a good trail could be made to the Forks, with little expense, connecting thereby Lytton with both Hope and Yale, and reducing the heavy price of freight for provisions. The country on both banks of the Frazer river along the trail, is exceedingly mountainous, with occasional benches, at a great elevation above the river, and not producing any good inducements for cultivation.

The river through the Cañon is only traversable during the winter months, and at all times very dangerous.

Forks (alias Lytton) to the Fountain and Pavilion.

—Skirts the Fraser River as far as Foster's Bar, and there branches off to the Fountain at the back of the mountains, having the river Trail past the Lillooet, on account of the slide, a dangerous pass for packed Animals about half way between Lillooet and Foster's Bar. so that all pack trains for Lillooet from Lytton, have to leave Lillooet on the west, and go as far north as Fountains, and then double back along the river trail to Lillooet.

The trail from Lytton to the Fountain, about 56 miles for the most part of the way traverses ground where a waggon road may eventually be easily made, and without much expense, and might be extended to the Pavilion, about 12 miles farther north, with little more expense.

At the Pavilion, the Trail branches off Eastwards and then Northwards to Fort Alexander, a Trail at present generally travelled by packers; but from the Forks there is another Trail shorter and better, North Easterly by way of Thompson River, crossing it at the junction of the Nicholas, on to the Bonaparte River, and thence upwards to Fort Alexander! The distance by the Pavilion is about 250 miles, and by the latter route 200 miles, and a better trail, though not much travelled at present.

From the Forks to Fort Kamloops, there are two trails, one by the river being the shorter, but not the better, the other crossing the Nicholas and passing by the Lakes, being rather longer, but traversing from the Nicholas, good pastoral country, with occasional good arable flats, which, towards Kamloops increase in number and richness.

The trail from the Pavilion to Fort Kamloops, passes the whole way through good pastoral lands, and the flats on the Bonaparte River, are generally selected for the wintering of Cattle, the grass being abundant, and the winter not so severe as in the other parts of the district.

MINES.

The average yield is given in the returns of the mines about here; throughout the Thompson River and Alexander district, the early winter has this season prevented the Rivers being properly prospected and worked, but, I have no doubt that next Spring many miners will return there, and work at the low stage of the water, and take good wages; at present season the price of provisions drives all below, and causes many discouraging and conflicting accounts.

TENDERS are invited for BILLS in sums not less than £250, drawn on the LORDS COMMISSIONERS of Her Majesty's Treasury, London.

W. DRISCOLL GOSSET,
Treasurer.

HOTEL INTERNATIONAL.

SAN FRANCISCO,.....CALIFORNIA.

THE UNDERSIGNED invites the attention of the travelling public, and strangers in particular, to the merit of this house. It was established under the present management, on the first day of January, '56, as a FIRST-CLASS HOTEL, in every particular.

The Lessee and Manager, with a delicacy not wishing to encroach upon the merits of other houses, cannot but recall the marked favor with which his enterprise has been received by a discriminating public, in a constantly increasing patronage of the first respectability, showing conclusively the superior mode in which this hotel is conducted.

It is contiguous to all of the most popular places of amusement, the principal thoroughfares, the fashionable promenades and steamboat landings; thus rendering it at all times, the most DESIRABLE STOPPING PLACE FOR FAMILIES AND SINGLE GENTLEMAN, during their stay in San Francisco.

Single rooms, with full board, $2.50 per day.

JOHN J. HALEY,

Proprietor.

The "International Hotel Coach" is in attendance at all hours, to convey Passengers to and from the Hotel, for $1.00 each including baggage. tc

A CARD.

IT HAVING BEEN the subject of remark with persons passing the corner of Government and Yates-streets, that the buildings lately removed thereto were not in accordance with the general line of the street, I would state I, being the one attached to the Land Office whose duty it was to make the original survey and plans, and mark out the property in question, am kindly authorised by the Surveyor General, publicly to assert that he has personally examined them, and is fully assured of their accuracy—the error in position of the Buildings being directly attributable to the contractors having removed the fence, on the street side of which the corner posts were nailed, without having previously marked the corresponding points on the ground.
